Dear Lindisfarne Community Member

As a valuable member of our community, we would like to invite you to be a corporate sponsor for the Lindisfarne Anglican Grammar School’s upcoming musical production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat.

The school is thrilled that acclaimed Australian actress Rachael Beck has agreed to join the musical production. Her credits include productions of Chitty Chitty Bang Bang, Singing in the Rain and The Sound of Music. Rachael is widely remembered for her award-winning role as Belle opposite Hugh Jackman in Beauty and the Beast. In addition, she has starred in numerous television productions including Home and Away, City Homicide, Stingers and The Flying Doctors.

The Lindisfarne students also have the wonderful opportunity to be led by world-class Director Darren Yap (Mamma Mia, Miss Saigon) and Musical Director Max Lambert (Strictly Ballroom, Hairspray). They are regarded as two leading practitioners in the country and will ensure that Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat is a high-calibre musical production that will draw the best out of our students.

The experience will be invaluable in building not only the capacity of the students themselves, but the entire Lindisfarne Creative and Performing Arts community. These experiences help to remind us of what we are truly capable of achieving, and this production is significant in the aspirational journey of the school.

We anticipate over 1700 tickets being sold for the show over four performances and if you choose to support us, there are considerable opportunities to market your business to the local community. We are offering four different corporate packages – Platinum, Gold, Silver and Bronze. The details can be found in the accompanying brochure. There are limited opportunities available, so you are encouraged to act quickly!

We will be following up with you within the next few days to discuss your interest. Please feel free to contact our Director of Marketing & Enrolments, Simon McKinley with any questions at (07) 5590 5099 or SMcKinley@lindisfarne.nsw.edu.au

Kind regards

Stuart Marquardt
Principal

Helping Students Excel
Lindisfarne Anglican Grammar School is proud to present Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat as its major production for 2017.

The school is delighted to have renowned Australian performer Rachael Beck join the cast. Rachael’s “talents span across stage and screen, as both an acclaimed vocal artist actress” and her stage credits include productions of Chitty Chitty Bang Bang, Les Miserables, Cats, Singing in the Rain, The Sound of Music and Beauty and the Beast (opposite Hugh Jackman).

The Lindisfarne students also have the wonderful opportunity to be led by world-class Director Darren Yap (Mamma Mia, Miss Saigon) and Musical Director Max Lambert (Strictly Ballroom, Hairspray). Rachael Beck describes Yap and Lambert as “two of the most inspirational and talented men in the country. You don’t realise how many people in [the] industry would give their right arm to be in a room with those two artists.”
