

Player Code of Conduct

To ensure that everyone receives the greatest benefit from the netball activity, players should:

- Play by the rules.
- Be courteous in communication with players, coaches, umpires and officials.
- Never argue with an umpire, official or coach. If you disagree, have your captain approach the umpire during the break or after completion of the match.
- Recognise the value and importance of volunteer coaches, managers and umpires. They give of their time and resources to provide recreational activities for your team and deserve your support.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every young person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background and religion.
- Not sledge or deliberately provoke others. It is not acceptable or permitted in netball.
- Not abuse equipment. It is not acceptable or permitted in netball.
- Work equally hard for yourself and your team. Your team's performance will benefit and so will you.
- Be a good sport. Praise all good work by both your team members and opposition during training and also games.
- Treat participants as you would like to be treated. Do not interfere with, bully or take unfair advantage of another person.
- Cooperate with your coach, team members and opponents.
- Not interfere with the progress and/or conduct of the game.